

User should find navigating the website simple. Clear and appealing design scheme should allow for instruction and guidance on arriving at the overall course planner based on academic info inputted by the user as the system prompts.